Informed Consent Form

For a patient's consent to publication of information about them in Amsterdam Medical Student Journal' (AMSj) publications and products.

Name of person described in article or shown in photograph:

Subject matter of photograph or article:

Manuscript number:

Title of article:

Corresponding author:

I, _____, [insert full name] give my consent to use this information of MYSELF/MY CHILD OR WARD/MY RELATIVE [circle correct description] relating to the matter above ("the information") to appear in the journal and associated publications.

I have seen and read the material to be submitted to the journal, and understand the following:

1. The information will be published without my name and AMSj will make every attempt to ensure my anonymity. I understand, however, that complete anonymity cannot be guaranteed. It is possible that somebody somewhere - perhaps, for example, somebody who looked after me if I was in hospital or a relative - may identify me.
2. The text of the article will be edited for style, grammar, consistency, and length.
3. The information may be published in the journal, which is distributed worldwide. The target group of the journal consists of medical students, but might also be seen by non-medical students.
4. The information will be placed on the journal website, www.amc.nl/amsj.
5. The information may also be used (partly) in other publications and products published by AMSj or other publishers to whom AMSj licenses its content. This includes publication in English and in translation, in print, in electronic formats, and in any other format that may be used by AMSj or its licensees, now and in the future. In particular the information may appear in local editions of the journal or other journals and publications published overseas.

6. AMSj will not allow the information to be used for advertising or packaging, nor to be used out of context.
7. I can revoke my consent at any time before publication, up to four weeks before the journal goes online.
